

The Sportsman's Gazette

April-May-June 2014

3-Gun
Get in the Game

Last three Champions of 3-Gun National All Pull a Timney Trigger

What do the last three Champions of 3-Gun Nation have in common - They pull Timneys.

Timney Triggers proudly announces the sponsorship of three ambassadors to the sport of 3-Gun - Keith Garcia, Tommy Thacker and Greg Jordan.

"We are pleased to support the sport of 3-Gun and its passionate people and are glad to help out where we can," said John Vehr of Timney Triggers USA. "We are excited that Greg and Tommy have joined Keith in the Timney Tribe."

Thacker is the 2012 Champion, Garcia is the 2013 Champion and Jordan is the current 2014 3-Gun Nation Champion and all are currently competing in the 3-Gun Nation Pro Series.

Since it was founded in 1946, Timney Triggers has built a reputation based on the quality of its products. Because of the precision machining and workmanship that goes into each Timney product they are referred to as "The World's Finest Triggers." Each and every Timney Trigger is individually tested trigger is hand assembled, tested, and calibrated for the specific rifle model it is intended for before it's delivered to the customer's door. Timney Triggers is proud to offer a lifetime warranty on all of their products. Each trigger is made in the USA.

U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit Infiltrates 3-Gun Nation Pro Series

By Michael Molinaro

Three U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit (USAMU) Soldiers and an Army spouse officially joined their USAMU teammates on the 3-Gun Nation Series Pro Tour for 2014 after impressive performances at the 3-Gun Nation Pro Series Qualifier Feb. 15-16 at the U.S. Shooting Academy (USAA) in Tulsa, Okla.

Leading the way was Sgt. Matthew Sweeney, who won the match only a few weeks after completing the Warrior Leader Course. Coming in closely behind Sweeney was Sgt. Shane Coley, placing third overall. Capt. Ryan Calhoon finished in 14th place, also earning a spot on the tour. Stephanie Payne, wife of USAMU shooter Sgt. Tyler Payne, finished fourth amongst females to earn a place on the Ladies Pro Tour.

The four rookies join three-time series national champion Staff Sgt. Daniel Horner, Staff Sgt. Joel Tuner and Sgt. Payne on the Pro Series Tour.

The 2014 3-Gun Nation series opener is scheduled for March 15 at USSA in Oklahoma. A total of four events are held before the season-ending series championship in October.

USAMU is part of the U.S. Army Accessions Brigade, Army Marketing and Research Group and is tasked with enhancing the Army's recruiting effort, raising the standard of Army marksmanship and furthering small arms research and development to enhance the Army's overall combat readiness.